

dubrovacki.hr

"Region

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE IN OCTOBER IN DUBROVNIK

"The most precious resource - water"

Oliver 09.02.2011. · Commented 1 times

Facebook Twitter

Nikola Dobrosravić prefect at the meeting with the organizing committee of the International Conference on Water talks about the sixth conference to be, with about 350 participants from 80-odd countries in the world, held in mid-October in Dubrovnik.

Organization UNDP (Development Programme United Nations) and GEF (Global Environment) every two years organized a conference on water, and so far have been held in Hungary, Brazil, South Africa, Australia and China. In Dubrovnik, the GEF and celebrate 20 years of work on projects related to the protection of "the most valuable resource-water."

Representatives of the Organising Committee - Vladimir Mamaev (UNDP), Christian Severin (GEF), Mishal Hamid (International Waters-international waters) and Iouri Oliounine (UNESCO) with the County were discussed about the possibilities and manner in which the Region to contribute to the organization of the conference. The stressed that the conference will be representatives of all UN bodies and the World Bank and that they desire to be present in Dubrovnik and expensive smell and taste of the Mediterranean ".

Prefect Dobrosravić, with whom at the meeting were also representatives of the County Development Agency DUNEA Helena Kangjera and Head of Municipal Affairs, Transport and Communications Minister Ivo Gjaja, organiozatorima said the county is involved in organizing this international conference.

dv

Read comments (1)