Development of the Strategic Action Programme

SAP has been prepared, and approved by the PSC

- Ecosystem- based approach
- With tangible regional targets (e.g. 25-30% reduction of fishing boats; 10% reduction of N discharge / 5 years)
- Identified management actions which are technically feasible and politically & socially acceptable (technical feasibility study and PSAA)

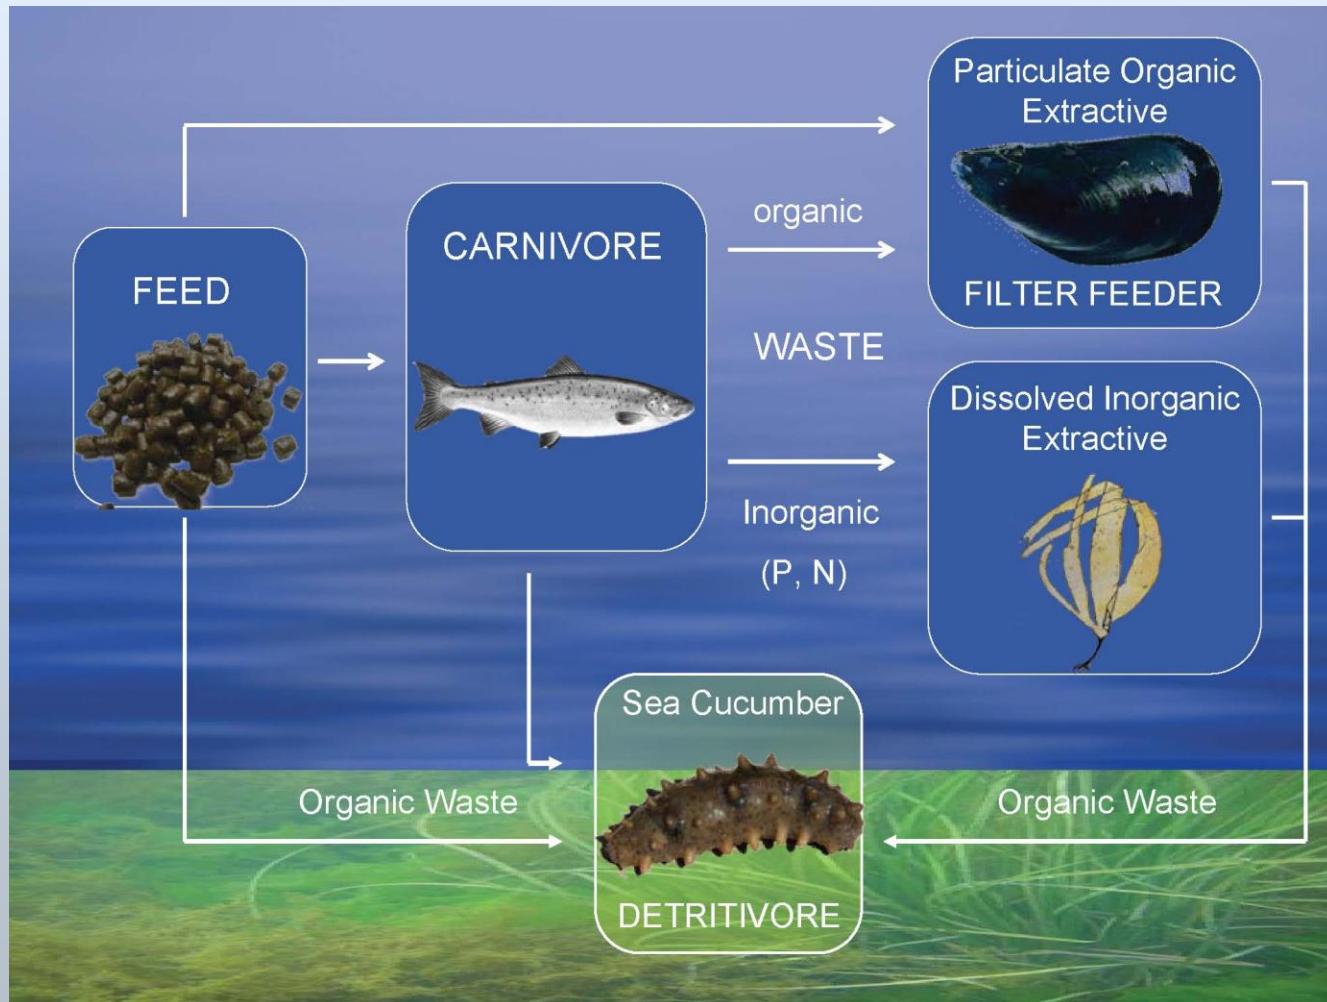

Consideration of the Ecosystem-based Approach

Management Considerations

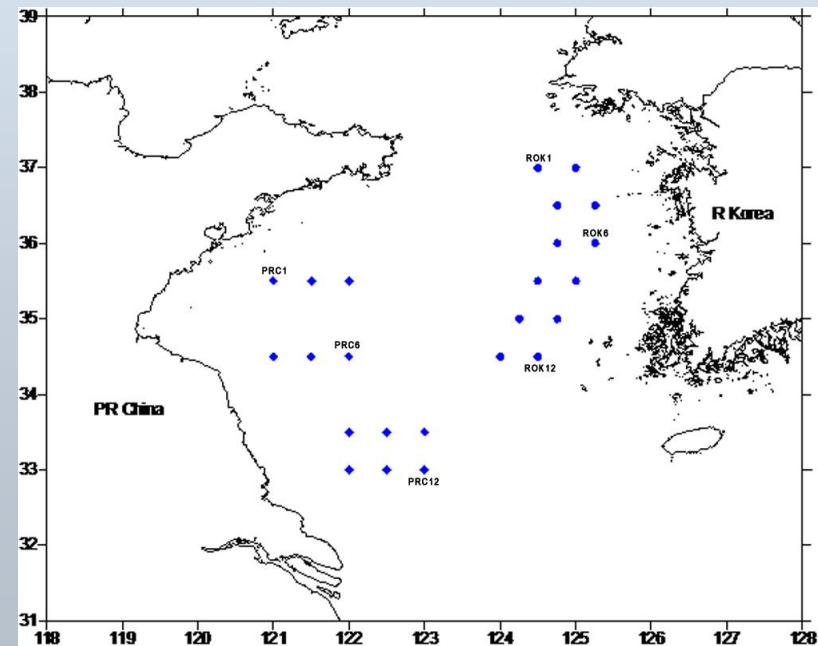

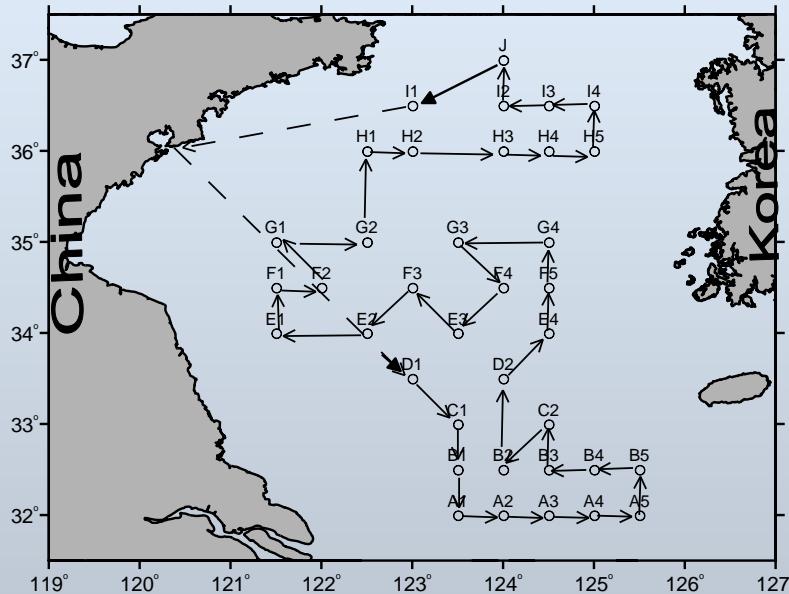

Measures to Reduce Nutrient Discharges

Example on Mariculture

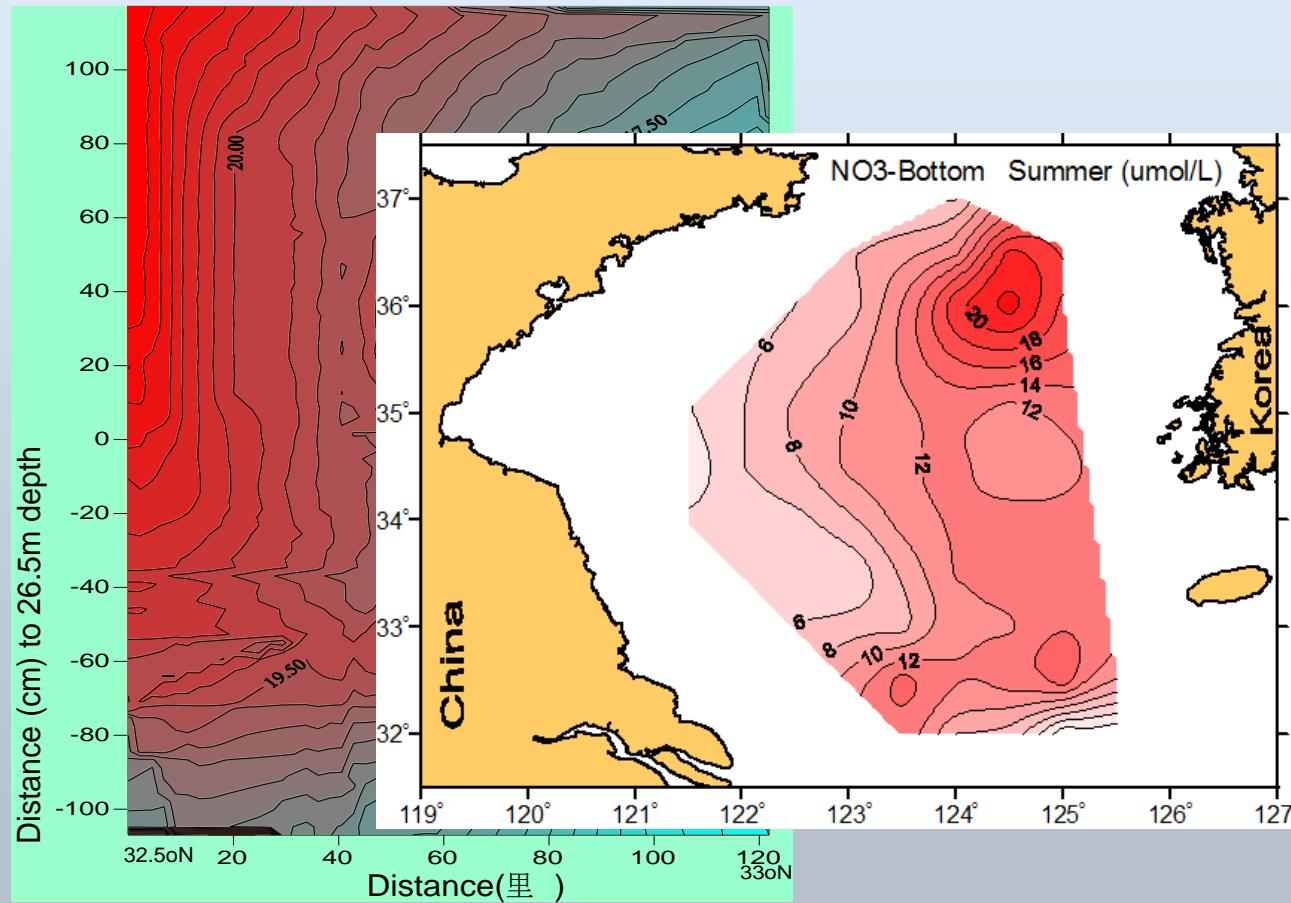

Co-operative Cruises

Generated basin-wide data and information

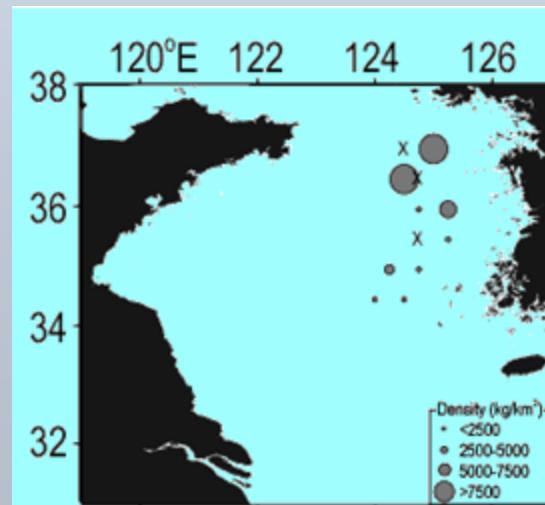

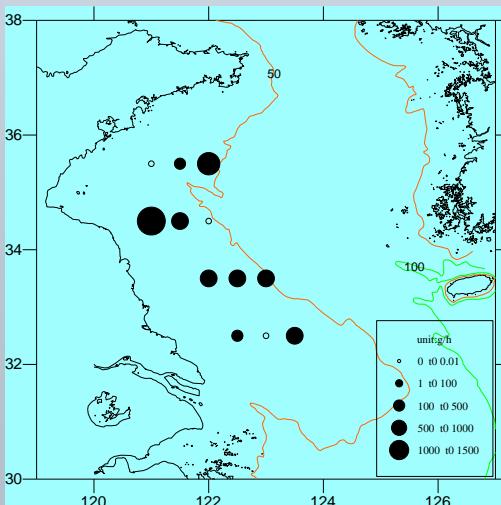

Joint Fishery Stock Assessment

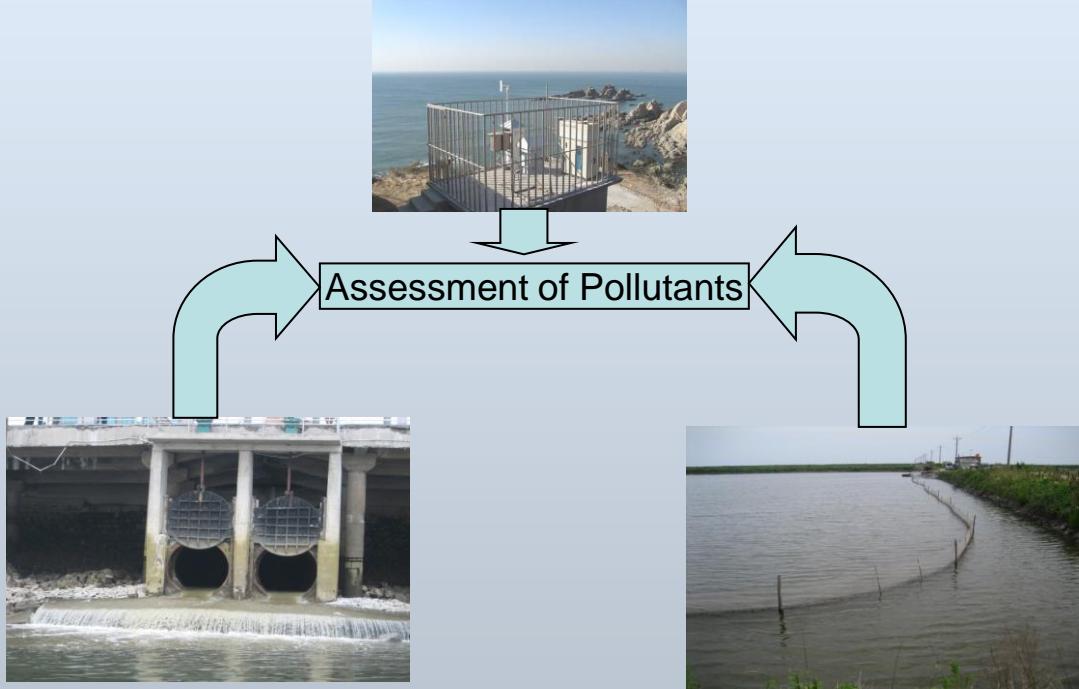

Four cruises were organised with comparable methods

The survey revealed the distribution of small yellow croaker in May, with larger individuals prevalent in the western Yellow Sea close to the spawning grounds. In contrast, larger anchovy were recorded in the eastern Yellow Sea

Subject: Endorsement for Implementation of the Yellow Sea LME Strategic Action Programme for Adaptive Ecosystem Based Management

Dear Yannick Glemaric,

In my capacity as GEF Operational Focal Point for, I confirm that the above project proposal (a) is in accordance with the government's national priorities and the commitments made by the Democratic People's Republic of Korea under the relevant global environmental conventions and (b) has been discussed with relevant stakeholders, including the global environmental convention focal points, in accordance with GEF's policy on public involvement.

Accordingly, I am pleased to endorse the preparation of the above project proposal with the support of UNDP. If approved, the proposal will be prepared and implemented by the State Hydro-Meteorological Administration of DPR Korea. Further, I request UNDP to finalize the draft project document, which has been prepared, before it is submitted to the GEF Secretariat for CEO endorsement.

I understand that the total GEF financing being requested for this project is US$ 9,529,412 inclusive of project preparation grant (PPG), if any, and Agency fee to UNDP for project cycle management services associated with this project.

Sincerely,

RJ Hung Sik
