

16th Lme

Meeting with
Coastal Partners

Paris (FR) 8 - 11 July 2014

Third Global Conference on Large Marine Ecosystems

Authors and Institutions:

Hashali Hamukuaya, Benguela Current Commission and

Kenneth Sherman, NOAA

Session 3: Global and regional networks

Day of presentation: Thursday 10 July 2014

Scope of the Conference

Presentations focused on ecosystem based management (EBM) and assessment of the World's Large Marine Ecosystems (LMEs)

Conference bringing together leaders in EBM at the intersection of science and policy

Natural and social scientists sharing results of LME projects underway by 110 countries

LME Project Financial Support and Partners

$3.15 billion in financial assistance to EBM-LME Projects from the GEF, World Bank, OECD donor countries and institutions

Presenters include specialists from:

5 UN agencies— UNDP, UNEP, UNIDO, FAO, IOC-UNESCO,

2 NGOs: IUCN, WWF

Project practitioners from Africa, Asia, Latin America, Europe, the Pacific, the Arctic

LME Keynoters:

GEF Policy—N. Ishii, CEO, GEF (invited)

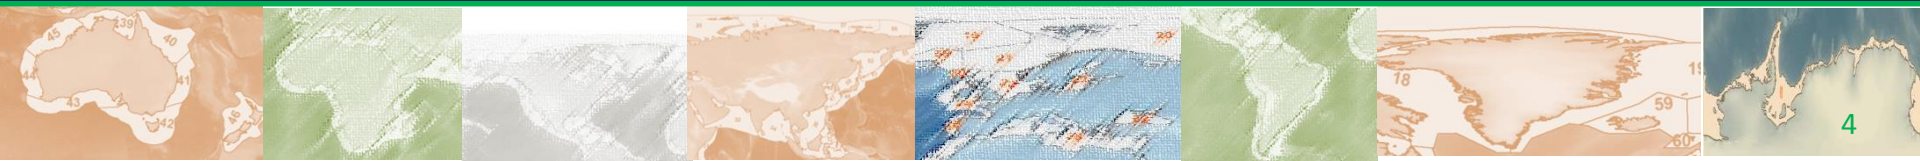

LME Productivity—M. Fogarty, US NOAA

LME Fish and Fisheries—D. Pauly, U of BC

LME Pollution and Ecosystem Health—P. Kershaw, GESAMP, U.K.

LME Socioeconomics—J. McGlade, UNEP, Kenya

LME Governance—H. Hamukuaya, Benguela Current Commission, Namibia

Speakers, Panels, and Posters on:

LMEs and Climate Change

LMEs and Nutrient Enrichment

LMEs and Fisheries Sustainability

LMEs and Acidification

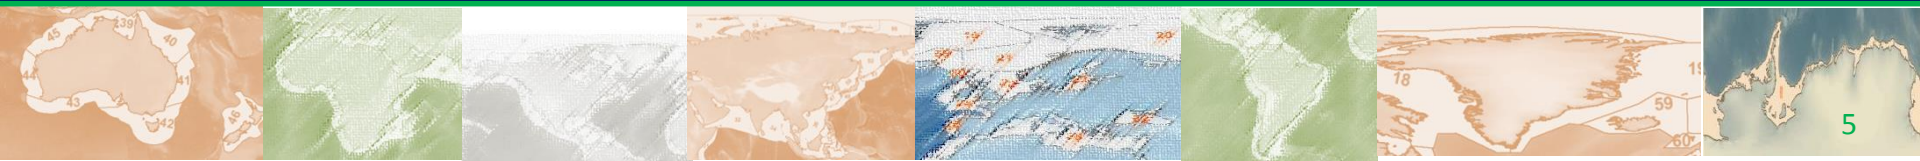

LMEs and Biodiversity

LMEs and Coastal Zone Management

LMEs and Marine Protected Areas

LMEs and Marine Spatial Planning

LMEs and Education and Training in EBM Practices

Hosted by the Governments of:

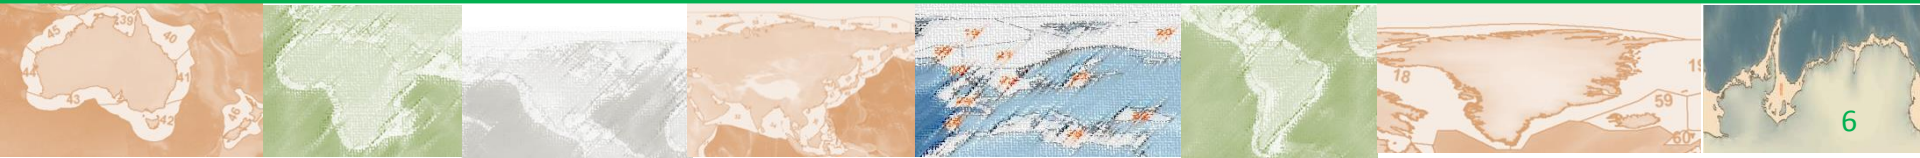

Angola

Namibia

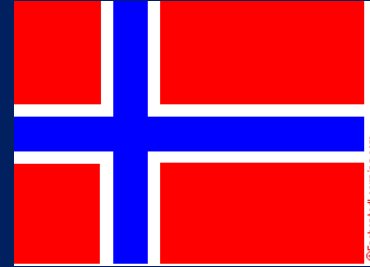

South
Africa

Sponsored by the Governments of:

Norway

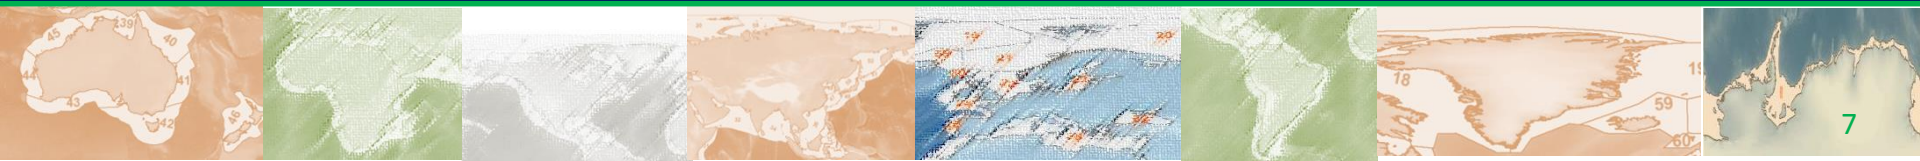

Germany

Venue: Swakopmund Indoor Sports Centre
<http://www.swakopmundhotel.com>

Poster Contacts:

Dr. Hashali Hamukuaya Hashali@BenguelaCC.org
Dr. Kenneth Sherman Kenneth.Sherman@noaa.gov

Organizational Support from:

UNDP

IOC-UNESCO

FAO

