

Workshop Agenda

Tuesday 9th May

WELCOME & INTRODUCTIONS

- 0900-0915 Workshop Registration
- 0915-0935 Welcome Address
Secretary of Science and Technology of the State of Pará and Dean of the Federal University of Pará
- 0935-10:00 Brief Exposition of the Workshop Plan and Objectives
Chris Corbin, UN Environment Caribbean Environment Programme
Mish Hamid, GEF IW:LEARN, Norbert Fenzl, GEF Amazon
- 10:00-10:30 Tour de Table/Expectations
- 10:30-11:30 Presentation of the participants and ongoing projects in the Amazon Basin and the Wider Caribbean Region; definition of the topics to be discussed based on the conclusions/recommendations of recent projects and those coming on-line.
- 11:30 Coffee Break

SESSION I. Planning of the workshop procedures and installation of the Working Group Sessions I
Objectives: Selection of the WGs, PIF model to be used as base for the draft proposal

- 11:45 -13:00 Selection, Installation and start of the WGs Discussion (Part I)
- 13:00 -14:30 Lunch

SESSION II. Working Group Sessions. Part II

- 1430 - 1530 WGs Discussion (Part II)
- 1530 - 1545 Break
- 1545-1630 WG discussion cont.

Wednesday 10th May

SESSION III. Work Group Sessions Part III, Consolidation of the results

- 0930 - 1100 WG discussion (consolidation of the results)
- 1100 - 1130 Break

1130 - 1300 Presentation of the WG results and plenary discussion

1300 - 1430 Lunch

SESSION IV. Consolidation and presentation of the results

1430 - 1600 Consolidation of the draft version of the Project PIF

1600 - 1615 Break

1615 -1800 Closing session: Presentation of the final results. Selection of the colleagues responsible for the development of the final version and submission of the project PIF.

Coqtail -

Thursday 11th May and Friday 12th May - Visit of the Amazon-Atlantic coast

Visit to the Island Algodoal, which is located at the interface Amazonas-Atlantic and is under jurisdiction of a so-called Protected Area. The trip will start the 11th in the morning at 05:00 in Belem and we will be back the 12th in the evening. Details will be available at the Workshop