

SCALING-UP POLLUTION CONTROL AND WASTEWATER MANAGEMENT FROM SOURCE TO SEA

Stockholm World
Water Week,
30 August 2017
11:00 am

AGENDA

Moderator: Astrid Hillers, Global Environment Facility

11:00-11:05 Opening Remarks

11:05-11:30 Moderated Opening Panel – Key opportunities and challenges

- Lisa Svensson, UN-Environment
- Stefan Uhlenbrook, World Water Assessment Programme of UNESCO
- Daphne Voss, European Investment Bank
- Birgitta Liss-Lymer, Stockholm International Water Institute, Source to Sea Action Platform

11:30-11:50 Thematic Discussion Teasers (Pecha Kucha format)

RT 1: Industrial pollution and engaging the private sector

- Christian Susan, United Nations Industrial Development Organization (GEF/UNEnvironment/UNIDO Mediterranean Sea Transfer of Environmentally Sustainable Technology (TEST) project)
- Esther Peled, Sher Consulting and Training

RT 2: Agricultural non-point pollution

- Naiana Milea, Romania Ministry of Environment and Climate Change, Waters and Forests (GEF/World Bank Romania Integrated Nutrient Pollution project)

RT 3: Integrated Coastal Zone Management

- Andrew Hudson, United Nations Development Programme, (GEF/UNDP – Partnerships for the Management of the East Asian Seas)

RT 4: Water Stewardship

- TBC, Heineken

11:50-12:20 Roundtable Discussions

12:15-12:30 Session Takeaways

- Jakob Granit, Swedish Agency for Marine and Water Management

Follow us on Facebook and Twitter !